STORY OF VETERAN SAVED BY MISSION

Lawrence A. Woodring Once Tried Suicide-Rescued By Gospel Mission.

On December 2 there appeared in The Washington Times an account of the at compted suicide of Lawrence A. Wood ring. Rushed to the Emergency Hospi ial, he was treated by skillful physiians, and saved from death. The Times article attracted the attention of the superintendent of the Gospel Mission who brought about the results attested to in the following statement. The statement is taken verbatim from the estimony of Mr. Woodring.

Testimony of Lawrence A. Woodring: I was born in the beautiful valley of Juniata and Pennsylvania forty years ago. My parents died when I was but a child. I was educated in the Soldiers' orphan School. When the Spanish war broke out I enlisted in the Forty-third F. S. V. and went with the regiment to the Philippines, where I participated in a number of battles.

I was also with a troop in China during the Boxer war, and then returned to the Philippines and did duty as a
